The undersigned ("Customer") wishes to establish an additional trading account with Alpari (US), LLC ("Alpari") for the purposes stated herein below. Customer hereby authorizes and directs Alpari to open such account using all presently existing and maintained account documentation, including but not limited to, risk disclosure acknowledgements, from the current account listed above. Customer certifies that all personal information existing in said documentation is materially correct and agrees to notify Alpari upon the event of any material change(s) thereof.

Customer expressly acknowledges and accepts to be obligated by all representations, terms and conditions contained within the existing account documentation, customer agreement, risk disclosure acknowledgement, and any and all other agreements and acknowledgements presently existing through Alpari. It is Customer's responsibility to apprise themselves of updates to such documentation by visiting Alpari's website at <http://www.alpari-futures.com>.

All trading in this account will be initiated by individuals authorized to trade for the account solely for the benefit of the account. Under no circumstances will the trading activity in this account be for the beneficial ownership of other parties. Customer is aware of CFTC Regulation 1.46 regarding the closing out of offsetting long and short positions; Customer may not maintain more than one account for the purpose of holding open a long and short position in the same futures or options contract, unless such accounts are independently traded or both accounts are hedge accounts. Customer agrees to abide by this and all other corresponding trade regulations.

Purpose of the additional account: _____
